When you're out there on your own

Where your memories can find you

Like a circle goes around

You were lost until you found out

F#m A D

The lonely feelings come

G F#m Em

Day by day

F#m A D

They slowly fade away

D42

Ooh, the look was in her eyes you never know what might be found there

She was dancing right in time

And the moves she made so fine

Like the music that surrounds her

G58 F#m Em

Should I stay or go?

F#m A D

I really want to know

Would I loose or win

If I try and love again?

Right or wrong, what's done is done

But the thoughts will linger on

When the sun comes up tomorrow

Well, it might take years

To see through all these tears

Don't let go

Oh, gonna try and love again

I've been waiting in the weeds

G Em
It's comin' on the end of August
G Em
Another summer's promise almost gone

And though I heard some wise man say
G
That every dog will have his day
F Am D
He never mentioned that these dog days get so long
G Em
I don't know when I realized the dream was over
G Em
Well, there was no particular hour, no given day
C
You know, it didn't go down in flame
G
There was no final scene, no frozen frame

I just watched it slowly fade away

And I've been waiting in the weeds

Waiting for my time to come around again and Hope is floating on the breeze

I've been biding time with the crows and sparrows

While peacocks prance and strut upon the stage

If finding love is just a dance Proximity and chance

You will excuse me if I skip the masquerade

And I've been waiting in the weeds

Waiting for the dust to settle down along the Back roads running through the fields

Lying on the outskirts of this lonesome town

And now the ferris wheel has stopped

You're swinging on the top

And he's the darling of the sheik

Down your pretty summer dress

Stand a little rain

dark cloud is coming, headed straight for your heart.

it might get just a little bit crazy babe, might try to tear us apart.

but when the storm blows over, only the strong love remains
A E A
if we're ever gonna see a rainbow, we gotta stand a little rain.

A D
everybody wants love to be easy, but it's never been that way
each love starts out with blue skies, sometimes those blue skies turn grey
E D E D
but when the storm blows over, only the true love remains
if we're ever gonna see a rainbow, we gotta stand a little rain.

F#m A thunder rolls, and the lightning strikes
F#m A D
hold on darlin', it's gonna be alright
cause when the storm blows over, i swear my love will remain

if we're ever gonna see a rainbow, we gotta stand a little rain.

if we're ever gonna see a rainbow, we gotta stand a little rain.

we'll have to stand a little rain (if we're ever gonna see a rainbow)

One More Song / Randy Meisner

I was singin' in a bar in San Diego
And the clock on the wall said
Time to go
And the old man in the chair
By the fire
Said, "Would you boys mind playin'
One more?"

One more song for the night gone by
One more song for the long ride home
One more song before I walk out the door
One more song before I'm alone

Me and my buddies, we were known
As the Silverados
I was leavin' town
For good that night
So, we sang him one more in
The Old Sombrero Bar
Beneath the broken
Neon light

One more song for the night gone by
One more song for the good times and the bad
For the faces of strangers and the Voices of friends
One more song for the times we had

So we sang him a sad and a sweet one
And we sang it so soft
And so high
And his tired eyes
They smiled goodbye
When the waitress said "Closin' time"

I thought, it's funny the places
Life will lead you

As I was packin' away my bass guitar
I was singin' this song as the road
Raced along, and the empty night
Swallowed my car

One more song for the night gone by
One more song for the things we've done
One more song for this road
I'm traveling on
One more song for the time to come
For the times to come

Am Em D Am D
You know, it all tastes the same

You can tell a changing heart
Their face a smile and yet there is no joy
They look for wealth no matter what the cost
You're someone else that they might just destroy

So many people gather round
A thousand voices lift their praise
For you have reached the top
So they give you all they got
But when you're singing from the soul
They fail to see your final goal
They only tell you that You have a long ways left to go

So you rhyme the changing rhyme
With one wheel spinning and one on the ground
Then falling victim to the game of time
You place your name out in the lost and the found

Wednesday Morning, 3 A.M. - Simon & Garfunkel

I can hear the soft breathing of the girl that I love as she lies here beside me asleep with the night and her hair in a fine mist floats on my pillow reflecting the glow of the winter moonlight she is soft, she is warm, but my heart remains heavy and I watch as her breasts, gently rise, gently fall for I know with the first light of dawn I'll be leaving and tonight will be all I have left to recall oh what have I done, why have I done it?

I've committed a crime, I've broken the law for 25 dollars and pieces of silver I held up and robbed a hard liquor store my life seems unreal, my crime an illusion a scene badly written in which I must play yet I know as I gaze at my young love beside me the morning is just a few hours away

When you're weary
Feeling small
When tears are in your eyes
I will dry them all

I'm on your side

When times get rough
And friends just can't be found
Like a bridge over troubled water
I will lay me down
Like a bridge over troubled water
I will lay me down

When you're down and out
When you're on the street
When evening falls so hard
I will comfort you

I'll take your part
When darkness comes
And pain is all around

Like a bridge over troubled water
I will lay me down
Like a bridge over troubled water
I will lay me down

Sail on Silver Girl,
Sail on by
Your time has come to shine
All your dreams are on their way

See how they shine
If you need a friend
I'm sailing right behind
Like a bridge over troubled water
I will ease your mind
Like a bridge over troubled water
I will ease your mind

How can people stand such tears
On what's already been done
And now with time just one step behind us
We've so far yet to run
But there will be no more
Disappointed heartaches left for me
My prize is almost won
But those songs of love won't mean the same
As when we'd first begun

I wan born a fool for treasure
But it was hidden in the rough
Ah, but when the gold was in my hand
You know I tried for harder stuff
So, all hurt and down,
You know I took my love to town
Hoping someone,
Somebody would just call my bluff
But those songs of love won't mean the same
As when we'd first begun

You know the world and all of its pleasures
I guess they tempted me far too young
And I know I've been wrong in so many songs
That I must just have been right in one
Oh what a price to pay
Just for winning this way
Now those songs of love won't mean the same
As when we'd first begun
As when we'd first begun

I slept last night in a good hotel
I went shopping today for jewels
The wind rushed around in the dirty town
And the children let out from the schools
I was standing on a noisy corner
Waiting for the walking green
Across the street he stood
And he played real good
On his clarinet, for free

Now me I play for fortunes
And those velvet curtain calls
I've got a black limousine
And two gentlemen
Escorting me to the halls

And I play if you have the money
Or if you're a friend to me
But the one man band
By the quick lunch stand
He was playing real good, for free

Nobody stopped to hear him
Though he played so sweet and high
They knew he had never Been on their T.V.
So they passed his music by
I meant to go over and ask for a song
Maybe put on a harmony...
I heard his refrain
As the signal changed
He was playing real good, for free

My Back Pages

Crimson flames tied through my ears
Throwin' high and mighty traps
Countless fire and flaming road
Using ideas as my maps
"We'll meet on edges, soon," said I
Proud 'neath heated brow.
Ah, but I was so much older then,
I'm younger than that now.

Half-wracked prejudice leaped forth
"Rip down all hate," I screamed
Lies that life is black and white
Spoke from my skull. I dreamed
Romantic flanks of musketeers
Foundation deep, somehow.
Ah, but I was so much older then,
I'm younger than that now.

In a soldier's stance, I aimed my hand
At the mongrel dogs who teach
Fearing not I'd become my enemy
In the instant that I preach
My pathway led by confusion boats
Mutiny from stern to bow.
Ah, but I was so much older then,
I'm younger than that now.

Ah, but I was so much older then,
I'm younger than that now

My guard stood hard when abstract threats
Too noble to neglect
Deceived me into thinking
I had something to protect
Good and bad, I define these terms
Quite clear, no doubt, somehow.
Ah, but I was so much older then,
I'm younger than that now.

Cowboy of dreams

Saw a sign on the highway
I was driving along, way home
On a hilltop is where I belong

I took a look at the hole
Where my head used to be
And I'll sing you a song
That descended on me

The way I live
Determines the way
My people survive

Yes the way I live
Determines the way
My people survive

So I went to the country
To look up a friend
'Cause I heard that the house
And the barn had a blend

I took a look at the hole
Where the bird used to be
And I'll sing him a song
Because he sang one for me

The way I live
Determines the way
My people survive

Yes the way I live
Determines the way
My people survive

And the names of the cowboys
Will all blow away
Like the dust off the desert
On a hot windy day

I've tried so hard to tell you
In so many ways
That I'm scared of the heartache and scenes
With the cowboy of dreams

Crimson flames tied through my ears
Rollin' high and mighty traps
Pounced with fire on flaming roads
Using ideas as my maps
"We'll meet on edges , soon," said I
Proud 'neath heated brow.
Ah , but I was so much older then ,
I'm younger than that now

Half-wracked prejudice leaped forth
"Rip down all hate," I screamed
Lies that life is black and white
Spoke from my skull. I dreamd
Romantic facts of musketeers
Foundationed deep , somehow.
Ah , but I was so much older then ,
I'm younger than that now.

Girls' faces formed the forward path
From phony jealousy
To memorizing politics
Of ancient history
Flung down by corpse evangelists
Unthought of , though , somehow.
Ah , but I was so much older then ,
I'm younger than that now.

A self-ordained professor's tongue
Too serious to fool
Spouted out that liberty
Is just equality in school
"Equality," I spoke the word
As if a wedding vow.
Ah , but I was so much older then ,
I'm younger than that now.

In a Soldire's stance , I aimed my hand
At the mongrel dogs who teach
Fearing not that I'd become my enemy
In the instant that I preach
My pathway led by confusion boats
Mutiny from stern to bow.
Ah , but I was so much older then ,
I'm younger than that now.

Yes , my guard stood hard when abstract threats
Too noble to neglect
Deceived me into thinking
I had something to protect
Good and bad , I define these terms
Quite clear , no doubt , somehow.
Ah , but I was so much older then ,
I'm younger than that now.

"A Horse With No Name"

On the first part of the journey
I was looking at all the life
There were plants and birds and rocks and things
There was sand and hills and rings
The first thing I met was a fly with a buzz
And the sky with no clouds
The heat was hot and the ground was dry
But the air was full of sound

I've been through the desert on a horse with no name
It felt good to be out of the rain
In the desert you can remember your name
'Cause there ain't no one for to give you no pain
La, la ...

After two days in the desert sun
My skin began to turn red
After three days in the desert fun
I was looking at a river bed
And the story it told of a river that flowed
Made me sad to think it was dead

You see I've been through the desert on a horse with no
name
It felt good to be out of the rain
In the desert you can remember your name
'Cause there ain't no one for to give you no pain
La, la ...

After nine days I let the horse run free
'Cause the desert had turned to sea
There were plants and birds and rocks and things
there was sand and hills and rings
The ocean is a desert with it's life underground
And a perfect disguise above
Under the cities lies a heart made of ground
But the humans will give no love

You see I've been through the desert on a horse with no
name
It felt good to be out of the rain
In the desert you can remember your name
'Cause there ain't no one for to give you no pain
La, la ...

Workin' man

Sittin' alone in the dark,
Wastin' my time in a park
'cause I've got nowhere to go.
Had me a job til the market fell out,
Tried hard to borrow but there was no help
Now I've got nowhere to go.

I need a job for these two hands
I'm a workin' man
With nowhere to go

One last look at my land
Auctioneer with his gavel in hand
And he says "it's got to go."
Worked this peice all my life
It broke my heart and it took my wife
Now I've got nothing to show

I need a job for these two hands
I'm a workin' man
With nowhere to go

Wandered aimless in the city
With my dirt workin' boots and my old straw hat in hand
Singing a song by woody guthrie
This land is your land; it ain't my land
I'm a workin' man, with nowhere to go

I was born to the sunrise
Breaking back all day
Now I've got something to say
I am broke but not broken
And I am not alone
Cause there's a lot of folks
With nowhere to go

Are they ever gonna understand?
You can't leave a workin' man
With nowhere to go.

Are they ever gonna understand?
You can't leave a workin' man
With nowhere to go

Just for me and you / Poco

Wish that I could come
With the mornin' sun
Shinin' through your window
I could be the one

To open up your day
Ooh, words can't begin to say
Feelings that are hidden in
In such a special way
And they're just for me and you.

Nighttime comes searhin' blindly
Been needin' some lovin'
I find me followin' my heart
Back to you
Ooh, how it reminds me

That I need no other lover
This feelin' is like no other
And though I can't be with you now

Let this song be another one
That's just for me and you.

So let my heart go on a-singin'
Let my song go on a-bringin'
To you lovin' that you know
Is in my heart and clingin'

To days that passed on by Need we stop, though, to wonder why
You know I love you, baby
The tears in my eyes are Just for me and you
